

POLICY FOR FEE WAIVERS AND EXCEPTIONS TO APPLICATION FOR USE
ROSENDALE RECREATION COMMISSION

Recreational facilities of the Town of Rosendale are supported by the taxpayers of the town. Additional support is provided by fees paid by groups and/or individuals renting these facilities. The fee schedule is outlined in the Application for Use. This process is overseen by the Rosendale Recreation Commission (RRC). (Note: While these sites currently include Rosendale Community Center facilities and lands, Rutsen Park, Linear Park, Willow Kiln Park, Veterans' Park, and Hardenburgh Park, specific collaborative relationships limit and/or redefine responsibility for certain RRC lands.) The RRC has the authority to waive rental fees if the following criteria are met:

The event must qualify as a non-commercial activity or organization primarily serving or benefiting town youth, town seniors, and/or the Rosendale Food Pantry.

OR

The event is held solely for the purpose of raising funds for the maintenance and improvement of Rosendale recreational sites and facilities.

All renters must complete the Application for Use, to be signed by an individual aged 21 or older and accompanied by a deposit and clean-up fees. A Certificate of Liability Insurance is required. All other requirements as outlined on the Application for Use must be met.
